

Family Coordinator

A unique opportunity exists to work closely with six families in Durham Region who are seeking an energetic, like-minded person to assist each family, along with their eight adult sons and daughters, as they explore the best possible circumstances on their journey to achieving meaningful lives within their community, based on their express interests, one person at a time.

Do you have a passion for helping others discover a full, and contributing lifestyle?

Are you able to see beyond the labels, and experience each person for the unique individual they are? To understand deeply what a person really wants and is capable of?

Are you excited about supporting others in their learning?

If interested in learning more, please forward your resume along with a cover letter to Dianne, indicating why you think you are the right person for the job:

Please note only suitable candidates will be contacted for an interview.

This is a new position with a recently formed group of six families. You will engage with each family individually to explore options that bring out the best self in their adult sons and daughters using a multifaceted approach. You will also facilitate an on-going family group for the parents involved consisting of mutual discovery and support.

We are seeking a creative, committed person with a positive attitude for this meaningful full-time position that offers an opportunity to work independently and as part of a team. You will have proven experience in a leadership/managerial role as well as experience working with families on a 1:1 basis.

This is a full-time position with flexible hours which will involve some evening and weekend involvement.
